Funding Opportunities from the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH)

Sponsor	Grant/Program	Description	Deadline
NEH	Awards for Faculty at Hispanic-Serving Institutions	Awards provide the individual recipient with time to write, conduct research , and pursue other project-related activities. This program offers applicants flexibility in project outcomes and award periods. Welcomes proposals in all fields of the humanities, such as literature, history, philosophy, religion, and history, criticism and theory of the arts.	4/9/25 (optional draft due 2/14/25)
NEH	State and Impact of the Humanities	Aims to expand our understanding of the role that the humanities play in private, public, and scholarly life by supporting data-grounded research studies that investigate the state, impact, and value of the humanities in the United States.	4/16/25 (optional draft due 2/14/25)
NEH	Humanities Initiatives at Hispanic-Serving Institutions	Supports the development of new or improvement of existing humanities programs , educational resources, or coursework. Past recipients have developed instructional modules to integrate local history and culture into the humanities curriculum; laid the groundwork for a minor in interdisciplinary Latino and Latin American Studies; explored	5/6/25 (optional draft due 3/25/25) border culture through curriculum development, writing skills, and a public dialogue program; and created a humanities-based certificate program for early-career engineering students.

NEH	Humanities Connections	Seeks to expand the role of the humanities in undergraduate education at two- and four-year institutions by encouraging partnerships between humanities faculty and their counterparts in other areas of study. Projects should plan or implement a curriculum connecting the humanities to one or more non-humanities fields, including but not limited to the physical and natural sciences; pre-service or professional programs, including law and business; or computer science, data science, and other technology-driven fields.	Anticipated 9/4/25
NEH	Public Humanities Projects	Supports projects that bring the ideas of the humanities to life for general audiences through public programming . Supports projects in three categories (Exhibitions, Historic Places, and Humanities Discussions), and at two funding levels (Planning and Implementation).	Anticipated Jan. 2026
NEH	Institutes for Higher Education Faculty	Professional development programs that convene higher education faculty from across the nation to deepen their understanding of significant topics in the humanities and enrich their capacity for effective scholarship and teaching.	Anticipated Feb. 2026
NEH	Landmarks of American History and Culture for Higher Education	For projects that situate the study of topics and themes in the humanities within sites, areas, or regions of historic and cultural significance to expand participants' knowledge of and approaches to teaching diverse histories, cultures, and perspectives in the United States and its jurisdictions.	Anticipated Feb. 2026
